DART celebrates 10th anniversary of DART Central Station with free rides

Des Moines Area Regional Transit Authority (DART) is celebrating the 10th Anniversary of DART Central Station (DCS) with free rides November 20-26.

Riders board and enjoy free rides all week on DART Local and Express routes, On Call services and DART On Demand.

The opening of DCS ushered in a new generation of public transit in Des Moines when it opened in fall 2012. DCS replaced Walnut Street Transit Mall and was a catalyst for a system redesign and route expansion.

“Since November of 2012, DART Central Station has served as the hub of our transit network and a symbol of DART’s commitment to providing affordable, seamless mobility options for all,” said DART Chief External Affairs Officer Erin Hockman.
