Public Invited to Review Redesigned Bus Network Before Routes Are Finalized

- What: The public is invited to a series of nine public meetings in February to give their input on the significant services changes planned for Express routes, local routes, shuttles and On Call service in June and November of 2012, as laid out in the DART Forward 2035 Services Plan.
- Why: This is an opportunity for the public to have an influence on the final design of the proposed new routes before they go into effect in June and November. Additional meetings will be held before the June and November services changes; however, these will be informational only, designed to help customers plan for the upcoming changes.
- Meetings: Each meeting will include a presentation on the proposed service changes, as well as group and individual question-and-answer sessions with DART staff members.
